(Important: this document must accompany your application form)

You should complete this declaration carefully and honestly. If you provide false or misleading information the Authority can cancel your licence; you may also be fined.

Your declaration must be made before a Justice of the Peace, Solicitor, Notary Public, Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the High Court or any District Court, Authorised Officer in the service of the Crown, any Member of Parliament

I, [name, address],

am the applicant for a salesperson's licence and I solemnly and sincerely declare that—

- 1 I have attained the age of 18 years.
- 2 I hold the prescribed qualifications.
[Strike out paragraph 3 if the application and declaration relate to a salesperson's licence.]
- 3 I have had three years' experience in real estate agency work within the 10 years preceding this application to be licensed as an agent or a branch manager.
- 4 I have advertised my licence application on [date] and [date] in [name of newspaper(s)] in the prescribed manner. The pages from the newspapers in which the advertisements appeared are included with this declaration.
- 5 I have not been convicted, whether in New Zealand or another country, of a crime involving dishonesty (or of a crime that, if committed in New Zealand, would be a crime involving dishonesty) within the 10 years preceding this application.
- 6 I have not been convicted of an offence under section 14, 17 to 22, or 24 of the Fair Trading Act 1986 within the five years preceding this application.
- 7 [Select the paragraph below that applies.]
There are no unsatisfied judgments against me in any court or Judgments obtained against me that are still unsatisfied are on the list attached to this declaration.
- 8 My licence or certificate of approval has not been cancelled within the preceding 5 years and my licence (if applicable) is not suspended.
- 9 I am not subject to an order made, or a notice given, under the law of a country, State, or territory outside New Zealand within the preceding five years that prohibits me from acting as an agent, a branch manager, or a salesperson (or equivalent) in that country, state, or territory.
- 10 I am not an officer of a licensee company, a chief executive officer of a licensee company, or a branch manager who has been disqualified from holding a licence or whose licence has been suspended under the Real Estate Agents Act 1976.
- 11 I am not prohibited from being a director or promoter of, or being concerned or taking part in the management of, an incorporated body under the Companies Act 1993, the Securities Markets Act 1988, or the Takeovers Act 1993.
- 12 I am not a lawyer or conveyancing practitioner who is subject to the provisions of the Lawyers and Conveyancers Act 2006.
- 13 I am not an undischarged bankrupt nor am I subject to subpart 4 of Part 5 of the Insolvency Act 2006.

I also solemnly and sincerely declare that—

- 14 There are no other circumstances that would or might make me not a fit and proper person to hold a licence.
- 15 I am the person named in the documents submitted with my application.
- 16 The documents submitted with the application are complete and correct.

I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing the same to be true and by virtue of the Oaths and Declarations Act 1957.

ADVERTISEMENT CONCERNING APPLICATION BY INDIVIDUAL FOR SALESPERSON'S LICENCE

Section 39, Real Estate Agents Act 2008

Real Estate Agents Authority

I, [full name]

[address]

am applying to the Registrar of the Real Estate Agents Authority for a salesperson's licence under section 38 of the Real Estate Agents Act 2008.

Any person who wishes to object to the granting of a licence to the applicant must give notice of the objection to the Registrar not later than 14 days after the date of the second publication of this advertisement, which is [date*].

The notice of objection must include a statement of the grounds on which the objection relies. Further details on grounds and other requirements for making an objection can be found at www.reaa.govt.nz or contact the Real Estate Agents Authority on 0800forREAA (0800 367 7322).

[Name of applicant]

[*Enter date the second ad will be published].

NOTE:

Before lodging an application for a licence with the Registrar, an applicant must advertise the application in this form in a newspaper or newspapers approved for that purpose by the Registrar twice at an interval of not more than 14 days.

Apply for a SALESPERSON'S LICENCE

Form 4: Application for salesperson's licence

Make sure you provide all the information the form asks for, and that you attach all required documentation. If the application form is incomplete, there will be a delay in processing your application and it may be sent back to you.

1-5 Details of applicant

Complete all sections in the boxes numbered 1 to 5 as relevant.

The following details will appear on the Public Register of Licensees:

- your name
- your licence details
- business address
- business email
- business telephone

6 Identification

The standard forms of photo identification are either a New Zealand driver licence or New Zealand passport. Please provide a certified copy with your application. If you do not have either a driver licence or passport, the Registrar may agree to accept some other form of identification. You must discuss alternatives with the Registrar before you send in your application.

7 Qualifications

You will need to provide proof that you have one of the prescribed qualifications for a salesperson's licence. If you hold the National Certificate in Real Estate (Salesperson) (Level 4), you must provide proof of having been awarded the Certificate by NZQA.

Please enclose with your application certified copies or originals of

EITHER:

- The NZQA National Certificate in Real Estate (Salesperson) (Level 4)

OR

- The official transcript or academic record, from the university you completed the qualification, listing the subjects studied and the degree or diploma that you have been awarded;

The transcript or academic record must have the recognised logo of the learning institution, state the date your qualification was conferred or completed, and show each paper and the mark.

ITO assessment

If you completed a schedule 3 degree you must also provide a confirmation of completion of assessment letter from the ITO.

Changed your name

If your qualification is not in your official name, please support your application with copies of the official name change.

Certified Copy

A certified copy is a photocopy of the original that has been certified as a true copy. A certified copy must be marked "Original sighted and this is a copy of that original". The certified copy must be signed and dated, preferably with a name stamp appended.

You should get the person who witnesses the statutory declaration (Form 5) to certify copies of your qualifications and Identification.

8 Future workplace

You only need to complete this box if you are intending to work and know specifically where you will be working. Provide details of your workplace. You can obtain this information from the agent or agency company where you will be working.

The Real Estate Agents Act 2008 requires that salespersons are properly supervised and managed by an agent or branch manager.

Note that you do not actually have to be working, or intending to work, in real estate in order to apply for and hold a licence.

9 Referees

You must provide contact details for two referees.

Your referees must have known you for at least 12 months. They must not be related to you by blood or marriage, or connected to you by a civil union or de facto relationship. They should be people who know you well.

Only one of your referees can be a current or a former licensee.

You should tell your referees that the Authority may contact them.

10 Consent and certification

The Registrar will wish to examine an applicant's criminal history (if any). The "consent and certification" section of the application form authorises the Registrar to make any enquiries to this effect. As part of the consent process, you are required to complete the Consent to Disclosure of Information Form that specifically authorises the Police to disclose information.

This section of the application form also certifies the information you have provided regarding your application is true and correct.

If you provide false or misleading information the Authority can cancel your licence; you may also be fined.

Form 5: Statutory declaration

Form 5 must accompany your licence application. You should check every statement in the form and ensure that you can truly make the statements concerned.

You must have your signature of the declaration witnessed. Persons who can legally do this are:

- Justice of the Peace
- Solicitor
- Notary public
- Registrar or Deputy Registrar of the High Court or any District Court
- Authorised officer in the service of the Crown
- Any Member of Parliament

Contest to disclosure of information

The Consent to Disclosure of Information Form specifically authorises the Police to disclose information to the Authority about your convictions (if any). Any disclosure will be subject to the Criminal Records (Clean Slate) Act 2004.

Fees and levies

The total cost of getting a licence is $1,132.75. This is made up of:

Application fee	$295.00
Operational levy	$657.00
Disciplinary levy	$33.00
Sub-total	$985.00
GST	$147.75
TOTAL	$1,132.75

The application fee is non-refundable. If you are not granted a licence only the levies will be refunded.
